

Independent observer of the Global Fund

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS: COMMUNITY, RIGHTS, AND GENDER ADVISORY GROUP

The Community, Rights, and Gender Department of The Global Fund has issued a call for nominations for membership on its Community, Rights, and Gender Advisory Group. The group serves as a platform for the exchange of ideas and initiatives, and to consult on approaches with regards to the development and implementation of Global Fund strategies and policies related to community responses and systems, key populations, and gender.

Applicants should have strong links to their constituencies or networks; experience of the Global Fund; and significant understanding of the Fund's processes, including, specifically, in the area of communities, rights, and gender.

The Advisory Group consists of up to 18 members, who serve on a voluntary basis for a maximum of three years, with staggered rotation of membership on an annual basis.

Interested persons should send an email to Rene Bangert with their CV and a brief explanation of their background and interest by 1 June 2016. For more information, contact Rene Bangert.

Read More
